

Call for Abstract/Manuscripts

National Plant Protection Workshop 2025

Plant Protection Society Nepal (PPSN), in collaboration with the Department of Agriculture (DoA), Hariharbhawan, Lalitpur, is delighted to announce the National Plant Protection Workshop (NPPW) 2025. This event will take place on 17 Asar, 2082 (01 July 2025) in the Kathmandu Valley. In accordance with the decision made during the recent joint coordination and collaboration meeting between PPSN and the DoA, the Technical Committee of NPPW 2025 is pleased to invite abstract submissions for presentation at the workshop at plantprotectionsociety.nepal@gmail.com. Please ensure that your abstract follows the prescribed format available at the link below: Abstract Format – IPSS 2024 (Visit: ppsnepal.org.np/publication).

Deadline for Abstract Submission: 25 Jestha, 2082 (8 June 2025)

Authors of accepted abstracts are required to submit their power point presentation or poster by 15 Asar, 2082 (29 June 2025) and a full-length manuscript by 19 Asar, 2082 (03 July 2025) within two working days after the workshop for inclusion in the official proceedings.

Please note that abstracts will only be considered if accompanied by a secure commitment to submit the full paper. Manuscripts must comply with the formatting and submission instructions outlined here: Full Paper Guidelines – JPPS 2023 (Visit: ppsnepal.org.np/publication)

Given the tight schedule and our commitments with the Department of Agriculture, we are working diligently to ensure the success of this event within the available time. Your timely and substantive contribution is essential and highly valued.

Important Notes:

- The Technical Committee retains the right to accept or reject any submission.
- Decisions regarding the mode of presentation (oral or poster) will be made by the committee.

We encourage you to share this announcement widely with colleagues, researchers, and professionals who may be interested in contributing to this important national event.

For further details or assistance, please contact the PPSN Secretariat or the Technical Committee of the NPPW-2025.

We look forward to your active engagement and valuable contributions to the success of the National Plant Protection Workshop 2025.
